ART SANTA FE

JULY 9 - 12

Focused on modern and contemporary art, the American fair celebrates its 15-year anniversary. The city is considered the third largest art market in the US, with 240 galleries. This year's edition gathers 32 both national and international galleries. The organizers point to a special highlight, the Puzzle Project, installation started in 2006 by Japanese artist Takashi Inaba in Osaka, Japan and recently displayed in London, Paris, Toronto and New York.

MONACO/MONACO

ART MONACO'15

JULY 9 - 12

Art Monaco's 6th edition this year brings together four thousand works displayed for sale in a 5 thousand square meter area. This year, one of Art Monaco's highlights is a never-seen before selection of masterpieces attributed to Jackson Pollock (1912 - 1956). Those pieces were locked in a private collection for over 50 years. Also for the first time in many years, on display and for sale is an authorized limited edition of bronze casting of the most famous sculptures by the greatest of the Italian Renaissance masters, Michelangelo (1475-1564).
